

ABSTRACT

A drum hoop includes an annular ring having inward and outward faces and a plurality of flanges formed on the outward face projecting radially outwardly from the lower edge. A plurality of parallel visual guidelines are formed on the inward face of the ring positioned parallel to a reference plane formed by the lower surfaces of the flanges.